

COVID-19 TRIAL PARTICIPANT INFORMATION LEAFLETS AND CONSENT FORMS (ID RC1)

RESOURCE COLLECTION SUMMARY

What is it?	Collection of Participant Information Leaflets (PILs) and consent forms used in COVID-19 trials. The collection includes materials from four trials, as well as a summary of the trials, UK Health Research Authority guidance and templates and World Health Organisation guidance and templates.
Who prepared it?	Dr Hanne Bruhn, University of Aberdeen.
How do I get it?	See below.
Recommendation	Where local approvals processes allow, we recommend that researchers use existing PILs and consent forms as templates for their own trial materials.
Can I use this straight away?	Yes. The collection contains examples and templates, which you can modify for your own trial.

RESOURCE COLLECTION

See <https://www.trialforge.org/resource/resource-collection-covid-19-trial-participant-information-leaflets-and-consent-forms-id-rc2/>

MORE INFORMATION

1. The author of this summary is Shaun Treweek.
2. The resource collection will be updated but the link will remain the same.
3. If you have any questions contact info@trialforge.org.